

BY- LAW

NO. 10

ISSUE: Club Awards and other forms of Member Recognition

COMMENCED: 11/3/2010

LAST UPDATED: 8/9/2011

PROVISIONS:

1. The matters to be taken into account in relation to the various club awards and other forms of member recognition will be as detailed in this By-law.
2. Subject to the Constitution, the Executive Committee can at any time vary the details relating to any Club award or other form of member recognition, including instigating and terminating such awards and other forms of recognition.
3. The matters to be taken into account for recognition of long service, patrol service and other matters determined by the SLSA shall be in accordance with relevant SLSA rules and regulations and or other By-laws as may be applicable.
4. Unless otherwise indicated, all awards or other forms of member recognition will be determined by the Executive Committee. If after considering the relevant criteria applying to any particular award, the merits of two or more members cannot be distinguished, the award may be presented on a shared basis.

Life Membership

5. Life membership may be awarded to a member who demonstrates distinguished or special service for the Club.
6. In determining the extent and quality of any distinguished or special service, the Life Membership Panel is to have regard to –
  - How long the person has been a member of the Club
  - Whether the person has served on the Executive Committee
  - Whether the person has undertaken any other roles within the Club and for how long that service was undertaken

- Whether the person has taken on additional responsibilities for the Club and for how long
  - Any service rendered which can reasonably be considered to be in excess of the requirements of any elected or official position the person has performed
  - Any other matter considered relevant by the Life Membership Panel.
7. The member's commitment to fair play, respect for other members and adherence to the rules of the Club and SLSA governing bodies is also to be taken into consideration. In this regard, the Life Membership Panel is entitled to take into consideration any previous disciplinary action at Club or higher level against the member.
  8. While a member's competition record for the Club can be considered, it will not be given the same weight as the matters referred to in 6 & 7.
  9. The matters referred to in 6 & 7 are not mandatory and are of equal importance when determining a member's overall record of Club membership.

Gordon Jones Honour Blazer

Gordon Jones had a long running association with the Club in his capacity as a local councillor and Mayor of Warringah. He was a staunch supporter of the Club and he felt it important to recognise the efforts of club members by donating an annual Blazer for the person considered to have made an outstanding contribution to the Club throughout the season. His son Darren, also a local councillor and Mayor of Warringah has continued the tradition set by his father of donating the annual jacket. The Blazer is considered the most prestigious annual award presented by the Club.

10. A major award presented to the most outstanding member of the Club for the past season. It is awarded to a person who the Executive Committee determines has made the most outstanding contribution to the club during the season.
11. The following matters will be taken into account when determining the recipient –
  - Whether the person has served on the Executive Committee or undertaken some other formal duties within the club
  - Whether the person has represented the Club on other committees or at meetings involving surf life saving or related activities
  - Whether the person has demonstrated a commitment to the Club through assistance at Club functions, Australia Day carnival, Masters Carnival, Bennett Iron Man, Barney Mullins Swim, patrol and lifesaving functions and other approved Club activities.
  - The person's level of commitment to the Club as demonstrated by his or her willingness to assist other members of the Club by being involved in training activities for competition, life saving awards and other related activities.

- Whether the person has been involved in competition as a competitor or official
- Any other matters the Executive Committee considers relevant.

The matters referred to in Clause 11 are not mandatory and are of equal importance when determining a member's overall contribution during the course of the season.

Distinguished Service Award

13. An award (not necessarily annual) to recognise members who have provided both sustained and conspicuous service to the club at any time during their membership of the club. The award will be presented to any member who has served the club at the requisite level in the area of training, assessment, lifesaving, as an official or general club related activities.
14. A maximum of 2 distinguished service awards will be issued in any one season.

Club Person of the Year and Young Club Person of the Year

13. The Club Person of the Year Award will be awarded to a member who is in any age category older than Under 23s. Any member who is in the Under 23 or younger age groups shall be eligible for the Young Club Person of the Year Award. Junior activity members will not be eligible except for those who hold their SRC. Eligibility for either award will be based on the member's age as at 30 September in the current season.
14. The awards will be given to the person (or persons) who the Executive Committee deems has made an outstanding contribution to the club throughout the season. The matters to be taken into account can include –
  - The level of assistance provided by the member in the general management and operation of the Club and its activities, including club functions, Australia Day carnival, Masters Carnival, Bennett Iron Man, Barney Mullins Swim, patrol and lifesaving functions, training and assessment and other approved Club activities.
  - The level of assistance provided to other club members at formal training sessions and carnivals
  - The member's involvement at any level as an official, coach, team manager or other logistical support such as water safety personnel, IRB driver or crew member

Meritorious Award for Lifesaving or Bravery

15. An award (not necessarily annual) to recognise members who have been instrumental in saving a life or who have participated in a rescue in circumstances where their own safety has been at a heightened level of risk. The events giving rise to consideration for the award are not restricted to the surf or beach related activities.
16. The following matters can be taken into account when determining the recipient –
  - The actions of the person saved or contributed to the saving of a life
  - The actions of the person were above or beyond the normal call of duty
  - The person undertook the actions as a volunteer and not as part of the person's employment
  - The person has put their life in potential danger to save the life or to perform the rescue.
  - The actions of the person occurred in circumstances which were dangerous or out of the ordinary (e.g. late or early in the day when lifeguards or patrols are not on duty)

Prominent Service Award

17. An award (not necessarily annual) to recognise members who have provided prominent service to the club during the course of the season. The award will be presented to any member who has served the club at an outstanding level in the area of training, assessment, lifesaving, as an official or general club related activities.
18. A maximum of 5 prominent service awards will be issued in any one season.

Patrol and Lifesaving Awards

19. Where applicable the following general matters will be taken into account in respect of all patrol and lifesaving awards -
  - (i) the member must be a financial member of the club
  - (ii) the member's total number of patrol hours completed for the season not including any penalty patrol hours

- (iii) the patrol hours must be completed for Freshwater SLSC unless prior approval from the Club Captain is given to count patrol service completed elsewhere such as at another club or life saving service
  - (iv) the number of “no shows” recorded for the member during the season with greater weight being given to those who have no such entries on their patrol record
  - (v) the number of exemptions from patrol service granted during the season with greater weight being given to those who have no such entries on their patrol record
  - (vi) the number of lifesaving awards the member has completed
  - (vii) the overall contribution the member has made to the club throughout the season in other roles such as trainer, carnival official, administration and training
  - (viii) the member’s competition results throughout the season but only if a determination cannot be made based on the other matters listed above.
18. In reviewing the matters outlined in clause 17, greatest weight will be given to (ii), followed in order by (iv), (v), (vi), (vii) & (viii).

Patrol Person of the Year

20. The award is open to all membership categories. The matters referred to in paragraph 17 will be used to determine this award.

Rookie Patrol Person of the Year

21. The award is for members who have completed one patrol season or less and who have gained their bronze medallion award no later than 31 January of the preceding season. The matters referred to in paragraph 17 will also be taken into account when determining this award.

Youth Patrol Person of the Year

22. The award is for cadet and active junior members who are proficient in either the Surf Rescue Certificate or the Bronze Medallion. The matters referred to in paragraph 17 will also be taken into account when determining this award.

100% Patrol Achievement

23. Awarded to any member who has completed all of their rostered patrols without substitution or exemption during the season.

Patrol of the Year

24. If a club patrol competition is run in any season, the rules applicable to that competition will be used to determine the patrol of the year. If a competition is not held, then the following matters will be taken into account –
- the patrol with the least number of no-shows as a percentage of the total number of members on the patrol. This aspect is to be given the greatest weight in determining the award
  - the patrol that has gained the most number of awards (not including units of competency) as a percentage of the number of members on that patrol
  - the degree of vigilance demonstrated by the patrol when undertaking patrol duties, including members being dressed in appropriate patrol uniforms and having all relevant equipment on the beach and ready for use. This aspect to be judged randomly by the Club Captain or his or her delegate throughout the season with all patrols being judged at least once during the season
  - the degree of team spirit demonstrated by the patrol as evidenced by such things as the patrol captain emailing members before and after each patrol regarding patrol obligations and expectations and providing feedback on patrols already completed, the degree of training undertaken by members while on patrol, attendance at BBQs or other social gatherings before or after the patrol and providing photos of patrol activities for use in club newsletters or other club documents.

IRB Driver of the Year Award

25. An award not necessarily presented annually to the IRB driver considered by other proficient IRB drivers to have made the greatest contribution to the club throughout the season. The award is to be determined by the IRB drivers engaging in a secret ballot with each driver having one vote only.

Competition Awards

26. The following list of competition awards will be issued each year for outstanding performance in each discipline, provided a member (or members) is identified who satisfies the requirements for the award -
- Most Outstanding Swimmer Award
  - Most Outstanding Board Paddler Award
  - Most Outstanding Ski Paddler Award
  - Most Outstanding Rower Award
  - Most Outstanding Beach Competitor
  - Most Outstanding Surfboard Rider Award
  - Most Outstanding Life Saving Competitor Award

- Most Outstanding Masters Competitor Award
  - Most Outstanding March Past Competitor Award
  - Most Outstanding R&R Competitor Award
27. In the event two or more competitors in any particular discipline are considered to be equal in terms of outstanding performance, the following matters will be taken into account in determining the recipient of the award –
- Whether the member has represented the Club at State or Australian level though not necessarily having made State or Australian finals or won medals at either championship
  - Whether the member has represented the Club during the season on a consistent basis at any or all of the following carnivals –
    - NSW Premiership or equivalent
    - those held in other branches
    - local, including branch championships (but not including junior activities carnivals)
    - commemorative or other special events
  - That the member has completed at least 25 patrol hours (not including penalty patrols) during the competition season
  - That the member has put themselves forward for team events at carnivals and willingly competed in team events when selected
  - Subject to any relevant allowance being made for other training commitments, place of residence/work and work and or study commitments, whether the member has participated in organised Club training activities on a regular basis
  - Whether the member has provided guidance or assistance to other members, including any formal or informal coaching duties.
  - The member's commitment to fair play, respect for other members and general assistance offered in the relevant competition area.
28. In respect of awards for March Past and RnR, coaches will be deemed to be competitors.
29. In determining nominees for any competition award, other club members may be consulted including the Club Captain, coaches and fellow competitors. Recommendations for the awards will be made by the Surf Sports Director to the Executive Committee.

Scholarship Award

30. This is an annual award designed to assist younger members in their careers after leaving school. The scholarship presented to assist the recipient to purchase equipment, books or other materials for their employment and or tertiary study.

31. The following matters will be taken into account when determining the recipient –
- The person has recently finished school and has commenced a new apprenticeship or tertiary education
  - The person has been involved in competition as a competitor
  - The degree to which the person has assisted the club in training activities, club functions, Australia Day carnival, Masters Carnival, Bennett Iron Man, Barney Mullins Swim, patrol and lifesaving functions, training and assessment and other approved Club activities
  - Whether the person had fulfilled his her Club patrol obligations
  - Any other matters the Executive Committee considers relevant.
32. The amount to be awarded each year for the scholarship shall be at the discretion of the Executive Committee.

Don Lees Honour Blazer

In 1966 the junior activities club was established at Freshwater surf club. It was associated with the Freshwater SLSC but was a separate club in all respects. The junior club awarded long serving members with Life memberships for their service and contribution to the club.

In the years after 1966, after many junior clubs were formed around Australia, Surf Life Saving Australia decided that these clubs should be part of the existing surf life saving clubs. At this point the Freshwater junior club became part of the Freshwater SLSC. Accordingly the life memberships to the junior club were no longer possible.

Don Lees established an Honour Blazer to replace the life memberships. Don is a Life Member of the Club was instrumental in initiating and maintaining the involvement of the Club in the annual City to Surf Fun Run. The award is one of the most prestigious awards in the club.

33. An award (not necessarily annual) which is similar in status to life membership of the junior activities section. The matters to be taken into account for this award will include-
- The person has been associated with the junior activities section of the Club for at least 8 years, and or
  - The person has served on the Junior Activities Committee for at least 6 years, and or
  - The person has contributed to the junior members and the junior activities section of the Club in an outstanding way.
34. Nominations can be made by any person associated with the junior activities section or any member of the Club. Nominations are to be considered by the Junior Activities Committee and if a 75% affirmative vote of that Committee agrees, a recommendation for conferment of the award is to be made to the Executive Committee which shall support or reject the recommendation.

John Cahalan Award for Junior Activities Member of the Year

John Cahalan was a foundation member of the junior club and occupied a number of executive positions on the junior club committee.

35. A major Club award presented annually to a junior activities member for outstanding participation and commitment to junior activities. The matters to be taken into account for this award will include –
- Whether the member has attended regularly
  - Whether the member has shown an interest in not only their own age group but also younger junior activities members
  - Whether the member has assisted with training and encouraged others
  - Whether the person has helped with the beach set up on Sunday mornings
  - Whether the member has participated in all club activities such as fund raising and attended all relevant club functions.
36. Age managers shall nominate members for the award. All nominations will be reviewed by the Junior Activities Committee who will determine recipient of the award.

Cathy Crozier Award

Cathy was an age manager who regarded all the children in her age group as if they were her own. Easy going and relaxed in nature, Cathy carried out her role with no fuss and always ensured the children came first whether at carnivals or on Sunday at Freshwater. Cathy loved the social life of the Freshie community, working tirelessly behind the scenes and enjoying the fruits of that work at the functions. Cathy was an age manager for four years from 1999. Cathy passed away during the 2002/2003 season after a short battle with cancer.

37. Presented annually to any person involved in the junior activities, including committee members, age managers, junior activities members or parents. The matters to be taken into account for this award include –
- Whether the person undertook their duties, participated in the activities or assisted with the activities in way that set a good example to others and which engendered a relaxed atmosphere free of stress
  - Whether the person demonstrated undertook their duties, participated in the activities or assisted with the activities consistently with a view to promoting the junior activities members as the primary focus
38. Nominations are to be made to the Chairman of Junior Activities by any person associated with the junior activities section of the club or any member of the Club. The recipient is determined by the Chairman of Junior Activities.

Kay Priday Encouragement Award

Kay Priday was a foundation member of Freshwater Nippers when it was a separate junior club in 1966. Kay served in the role of Registrar for a number of years and played an active role in various administrative, social and support functions at the club for many years. Kay also undertook official duties at Branch level.

39. This is to be presented annually to a male and female junior activities member from each of the Under 8 to Under 14 age groups inclusive. The matters to be taken in account for this award will include –
- Whether the member has participated regularly on Sunday mornings in both land and water events
  - Whether the member has attended carnivals
  - Whether the member has shown an interest in the Club.
  - Whether the relevant Age Manager believes the member will continue with the Club in the future
40. Junior activities members who receive other awards or medals (including club medals for making State finals) for competition are ineligible for the award.
41. Nominees are to be determined by the relevant Age Managers and confirmed by the Junior Activities Committee.

Perce Stirling Award for Outstanding Sportsmanship

Perc Sterling was born in Orange, orphaned at an early age and served in both World Wars in the Royal Australian Navy. After the war he eventually settled at Balgowlah. His granddaughter Sue and husband Bob had three sons who became the centre of his life. His great grandsons – Ben, Luke & Jono – all joined Freshwater Surf Club as nippers and Perc was at the beach every weekend encouraging them and their friends in their lifesaving pursuits and competition. He was always encouraging to those children who always did their

42. This is to be presented annually to a junior activities member who displays outstanding sportsmanship consistently throughout the season or who has displayed an act of outstanding sportsmanship during the season at Sunday morning activities and or any carnival.

Age managers shall nominate members for the award. All nominations will be reviewed by the Junior Activities Committee who will determine recipient of the award.