PROVISIONS:

1. Photographs of Australian Championship winners (Including Masters Competition & the Australian Youth Championships) shall be displayed in the Freshwater Room as follows –
 - (a) in black and white accompanied by the details of the member or members and the relevant title or titles won;
 - (b) in relation to titles won in specific age groups (e.g. U17, U19, Masters' age groups) by one photograph for all titles won in each age group;
 - (c) In relation to titles won in Open competition, by one photograph for all titles won in each specific event
2. Photographs of Life Members and Honorary Patrons of the Club shall be displayed in the Freshwater Room.
3. Photographs of members who receive Australian Honours Awards for services to life saving, bravery rewards or other special awards shall be displayed in the Heritage Room together with, where appropriate, details of the award given.
4. Photographs of junior activity members who win Junior State championships shall be displayed in other parts of the club premises.
5. In the event the space available to display the photographs referred to in 1-4 becomes insufficient, the Executive Committee in its absolute discretion can determine that some or all of the photographs be removed so as to allow more recent photographs to be displayed.
6. Photographs of –
 - (a) State Championship winners (not including junior activities members)
 - (b) Australian and NSW State representatives
 - (c) Other Club members
 - (d) Other people or items associated with the Clubmay be displayed in other parts of the club premises if sufficient space is available.

7. All photographs displayed within the club premises shall be reviewed each year prior to the commencement of the patrol season by the Executive Officer or other member or members authorised by the Executive Committee to ensure their continued relevance and accuracy.
8. Images of members referred to in 1-6 may also be displayed by electronic or other means in such other parts of the club premises as the Executive Committee may decide.
9. Honour Boards or other forms of recognition may be established to record the following –
 - (a) Club champions for each year
